

Rev. Dr. William T. Chaney Jr. has coached pastors, business owners, leadership teams, and lay leaders since 2005. William is an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) with the International Coach Federation (ICF). He is also a CliftonStrengths Certified Coach, a CliftonStrengths Discovery Course Trainer, an Employee Engagement Champion, and a Builder Profile 10 Coach with Gallup. William serves as the managing partner of the Chaney Coaching Group.

William is a member of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and has served in full-time ministry for 25 years as minister of music and lead pastor. He has served the Conference as a Discipleship Adventure Guide and District Superintendent. He most recently served as New Church Strategist with Path One, a division of the General Agency, Discipleship Ministries. He is an entrepreneurial church planter and has planted churches in Baltimore, MD, and Grayson, GA.

Prior to his ministry service, William had a rich professional background that significantly contributed to his coaching expertise. He was an account executive in information systems, an area director for a national youth development organization, and a grant writer for a nonprofit in the health education sector. He also founded an organizational development consulting firm, co-founded the Atlanta Divinity Center, and was an entrepreneurial church planter, establishing churches in Baltimore, MD, and Grayson, GA.

Rev. Dr. William T Chaney Jr.

williamchaney@vaumc.org

Communication | Arranger | Futuristic | Relator | Activator

“Coaching is a powerful tool for personal and leadership empowerment! My passion for coaching is driven by my belief that everybody has multiple talents and untapped potential that, when focused, can become strengths in their pursuit to achieve goals, impact their community, and transform the world!”